World's Most Opulent Villas

Nandana, Grand Bahama Island

Sequestered behind ornately carved wooden doors (rescued from a 250-year-old Javanese temple), the 20,000-square-foot Nandana evokes a Balinese teak palace—with a few exceptions. One is its location, on five private acres of Bahamian beachfront on Grand Bahama's Pine Cay; another is the 120-foot-long infinity pool that anchors five luxurious suites, including one styled like an air-conditioned safari tent. Yet another is the fleet of go-go gadgets that comes with the property, including four top-of-the-line Yamaha FX Wave Runners (capable of reaching 70 mph), two golf carts, two Suzuki all terrain vehicles, a customized Land Rover Defender and a deep-sea fishing yacht with a captain. The only downside: You might have to bring your own Learjet for the private airfield. nandanavilla.com
